

ALS UNITED 2025 ADVOCACY PRIORITIES

Based on comprehensive community input, ALS United has identified three critical priority areas for 2025:

EXPAND RESEARCH & TRIAL ACCESS

- Increase research funding opportunities
- Reduce barriers to clinical trial participation
- Support innovative treatment approaches

ENHANCE FINANCIAL SUPPORT SYSTEMS

- Advance caregiver support initiatives
- Promote tax relief for ALS-related expenses
- Support home modification assistance

IMPROVE HEALTHCARE ACCESS & COVERAGE

- Address provider availability gaps
- Support transportation solutions
- Expand coverage for treatments

OUR APPROACH

- Data-driven decision making
- Collaborative advocacy
- Flexible response to emerging legislation
- Support for both federal and state initiatives

ALS Northwest is a proud member of ALS United. ALS United is a partnership of 15 independent nonprofits committed to serving the ALS community in a collaborative approach by providing comprehensive local care and support to individuals and families affected by ALS, advancing state and national advocacy efforts, and fostering bold global research initiatives.
